

Fantasia by EscribÃ to hit Singapore

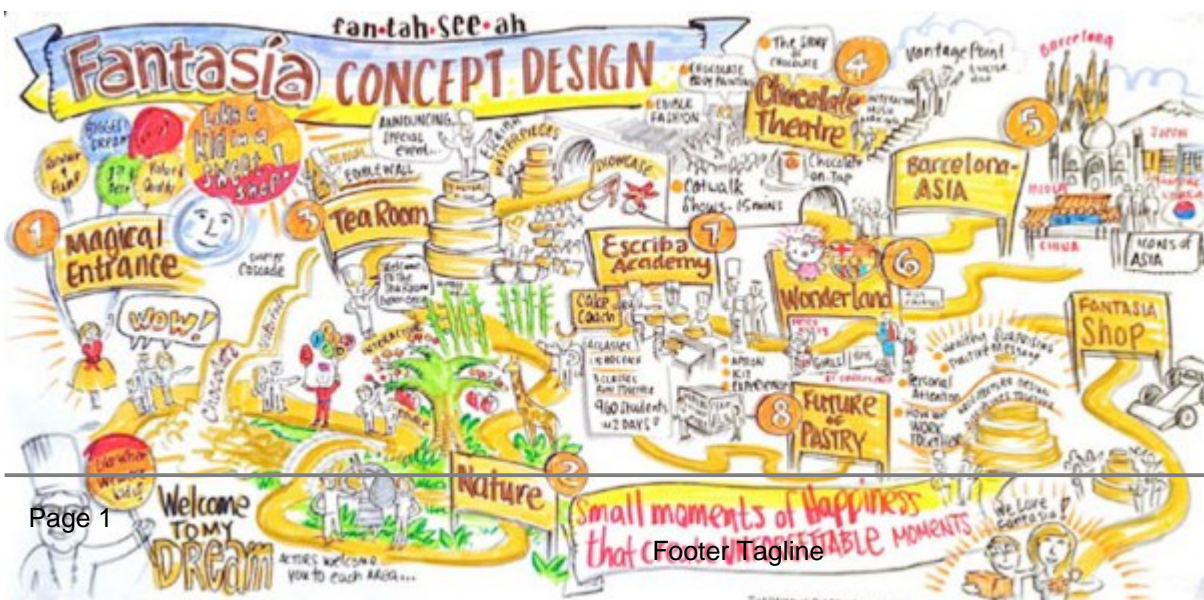

Description

Fantasia By EscribÃ

Move over Willy Wonka. A life-size extravaganza to rival Charlieâ€™s beloved Chocolate Factory is bound for Singapore. Sweet lovers will be in seventh heaven when they visit this confectionery wonderland on 22 â€“ 24 August at the Marina Bay Sands Convention Centre.

Itâ€™s been dreamed up by the world famous pastry chef team of Christian EscribÃ (among other things he created a giant teddy bear from 40,000 chocolate bon-bons in Europe) and Patricia Schmidt (created wearable chocolate hats for race day at Ascot). Together they are bringing this fantasy world â€“ a place to taste, explore and retreat from 21 century â€“ to Singapore.

â€œSmall moments of happiness that create unforgettable moments.â€

Itâ€™s fair to say Fantasia by Escib will be the worldâ€™s first-ever experiential extravaganza and fantasy world made almost entirely of chocolate, sugar and pastries. In the words of Christian, himself a fourth general pastry chef who runs the 107 years old Barcelona icon Pasteleria Escib â€œwe have a vision to create something like when we were kidsâ€.

Highlights at the event will include a magical entrance â€ with candy floss clouds, and a two metre high full moon made of confectionery, complete with blinking eyes; a real life Baobab tree with real chocolate mint leaves, surrounded by life-sized safari animals fashioned out of chocolate, meringue and sugar elements; an eight-metre tall, multi-tiered cake and a luxury boutique to buy beautiful shoes and caramel rings, all edible. Letâ€™s not forget the six metre giraffe and eight metre Merlion. Visitors have four hours to see and taste it all.

We think this show will be a sell-out â€ not only because you get to taste as you go, interact with actors and watch performances but because you can learn too â€ at chocolate, sugar fondant, caramel and pastry master classes. There will be over 30 confection masterpieces of varying shapes and sizes spread across an exhibition space equivalent to two soccer pitches.

Fantasia By Escib sets world record with 8.5m chocolate fountain

Chocoholics rejoice! Now you can get a taste of the worldâ€™s tallest chocolate fountain at confectionery theatrical production, Fantasia by Escib .

Standing at a massive 8.5-metres, Callebaut Falls with its cascading luscious liquid dark chocolate is more than twice the height of a double-decker bus. Made with four tonnes of chocolate, Callebaut Falls made its entry into the Guinness World Record books on Thursday after beating the previous record of 8 metres.

Callebaut Falls is just one of 23 masterpieces featured across eight pavilions at Fantasia, the worldâ€™s first confectionery theatre extravaganza, at Marina Bay Sands. Other highlights include a zoo of life-size confectionery animals and a 3-metre tall macaron Eiffel tower.

While these cannot be eaten, visitors can taste other sweet treats and even purchase mini masterpieces such as sugar flowers and chocolate shoes.

During the show, visitors will be treated to performances and acrobatic feats by one of Europeâ€™s most famous theatre groups, Comedians, who will roam around the wonderland. There are also masterclasses and an adults-only show, Midnight@Fantasia, featuring DJs from Ibiza and go-go dancers.
