

Popularity of Crepes

Description

Looking for a brand new business opportunity that's easy to learn, popular with a wide range of customers and provides a consistently high gross profit margin – What about crêpes and waffles?

With a recognisable gap within the UK market for a business that incorporates crêpes, waffles, ice cream, chocolate, cake pops and coffee. There is prime opportunity to launch crêpe kiosks/shops in a variety of locations throughout the United Kingdom.

Crêpes are a perfect idea for a new start-up business or for expanding product range within an existing catering business. With the popularity of crepes and waffles rising throughout Europe, It is an ideal time for any entrepreneur to seize the opportunity to be the newest, largest and fastest growing Crêperie in the United Kingdom.

We have our own exclusive luxury crêpe mix, which only requires water, offering an extremely high profit margin to any business given it is an 'add water only' mixture. The mixture is easy to use and has proven to be of a superior taste to our competitors mixtures. It has no need for fresh eggs, oil or milk, it comes in convenient 3Kg bags (four in a case). Using this mix within your business will ensure consistent quality and ease of operation.
