About Sephra

Sephra embarked on its remarkable journey in the USA back in 2003, pioneering the art of chocolate fountains and introducing groundbreaking innovations that transformed ordinary events into extraordinary, unforgettable occasions. From the very beginning, Sephra set itself apart as the only brand with sanitation approval, ensuring that its chocolate fountains not only delighted but also met the highest standards of safety and hygiene.

On the other side of the Atlantic, a parallel narrative was unfolding in the UK. It all began in a modest garage, where the concept of renting out chocolate fountains ignited a fervent passion for sharing indulgent moments. The pivotal year of 2008 marked a turning point when Sephra Europe's Managing Director recognised the immense potential and forged a partnership with the original Sephra in the USA, becoming a distributor and heralding the birth of Sephra Europe.

Sephra Europe's journey continued to flourish, evolving from merely distributing chocolate fountains to offering an ever-expanding array of delectable dessert products. Fuelled by an unwavering commitment to quality and a relentless pursuit of innovation, Sephra Europe captivated a broader audience. The narrative reached a significant milestone in 2019 when Sephra Europe acquired the brand from the original Sephra in the USA. This acquisition allowed Sephra Europe to further solidify its status as a trailblazer in the industry.

From its humble beginnings in the world of chocolate fountains to its evolution into a comprehensive one-stop-shop dessert solution provider, Sephra's journey serves as a testament to the profound impact of passion, innovation, and unwavering commitment to excellence. The legacy of the brand continues to unfold, driven by an unswerving commitment to enhancing the joy of sharing delectable moments with loved ones.
